LAST YEAR'S CHAMPION RETURNS AND WINS WITH A 3 STROKE LEAD

Returning champion Teegan Chappell won first place yet again - beating not only the runner-up by three strokes, but also finishing 3 strokes under his previous best.

I don't think anyone would be surprised to see this kid go pro someday. Of course if that does happen we'll be digging these articles back out and promoting the road to greatness starts at Boudler Creek.

I'm not sure it would be a putter's cup without first year champion Matt Becker on the course. You can always hear him cheering others on and celebrating their victories.

Matt had plenty of reason to celebrate himself finishing in third place with just six over par and leaving a huge gap between third and fourth place.

Matt also tied newcomer Noah Klein for most hole-in-ones. Sinking four and winning a bunch of prizes valued in the hundreds of dollars.

Finishing dead-last, last year with an incomplete, Jordan Graham kept the previous champions on their toes for the entire tournament. Ultimately finishing in second place and nearly stealing the title.

We were happy to see so many returning players, as well as so many new ones. This is just such a fun event and we can't wait till next year.
